OLWEUS

BULLYING PREVENTION PROGRAM

A whole school framework to reduce and prevent bullying, improve school climate, and support student well-being.

Support student well-being

Improve school climate with comprehensive bullying prevention

Roughly

8.9 MILLION

students are impacted by bullying every day.

Students who are bullied are more likely to dislike school and feel afraid of being bullied than uninvolved students.

Without proper prevention, bullying impacts schools in other ways, including:

- Failed credits
- Drop outs
- School transfers
- Mental health crisis
- Truancy, theft or other acts of violence

What it does

OBPP—Driving student success in more than 6,000 schools across the U.S.

Bullying prevention is key to achieving:

- Whole Student Success
- Healthy School Climate
- Positive Community Impact
- Proactive Risk Management

A proven solution

Olweus Bullying Prevention Program is a comprehensive school climate model that is:

- Researched
- Data-driven
- Based on a social-emotional framework
- Implemented school-wide
- Used to inform community awareness
